

Supplemental Document for Fiscal Year 2015

May 13, 2016
Nippon Suisan Kaisha, Ltd.

◆ Income deteriorated significantly year-on-year due to the drop in fish prices and rising costs in the salmon/trout aquaculture business in South America . Loss (-5,900 million yen) was offset by positive factors(+2,700 million yen) including the absence of allowance for doubtful accounts in Asia of the previous fiscal year, in addition to strong results of non-consolidated Marine Products/Food Products businesses (+1,800 million yen) and domestic/overseas Food Products business (+2,000 million yen).
 Operating income increased by 7% year-on-year and net income reached a historic high for the 2nd consecutive year.

Overview of FY2015 by Segments

Causes of Fluctuation in Operating Income

◆ Operating income increased (+1,300 million yen) year-on-year. The significant decrease in income due to the huge drop in fish prices of salmon/trout in South America was offset mainly by Asia and domestic Marine Products/Food Products including and non-consolidated.

Main causes of fluctuation)

FY2014	Overseas			Domestic			Common Costs	FY2015
	<South America>	<North America>	<Asia>	<Marine Products>	<Food Products>	<General Distribution>
	Weak cat of southernblue whiting, in addition to increased costs and the drop in sales prices in farmed salmon/trout	Strong performance by frozen foods for food services due to drop in prices of raw materials	Income improved mainly due to absence of allowance for doubtful accounts of previous year	Sales prices of fishmeal remained strong	Strong non-consolidated performance by frozen foods for household use and frozen foods for food services, and chilled foods business also remained strong	Increase in storage fees

Main Causes of Fluctuations

【Fishery】

- South America : Sales volume decreased due to weak catch of hoki and southern blue whiting.
- Completed withdrawal from Argentina business.

【Aquaculture】

- Domestic aquaculture business
  - Yellowtail : Sales volume increased significantly, despite increase in production costs due to surge in feed prices, in addition to the sales prices remaining soft.
  - Tuna : While sales price remained solid, sales volume was down.
- Chile salmon/trout aquaculture business
  - In addition to rise in production costs due to surge in feed prices and impact of fish diseases, sales prices dropped significantly.

【Seafood】

- Alaska Pollack business in U.S. While production volume and sales prices of fish paste (surimi) increased, sales volume of fillets decreased and production volume of roe declined.
- Europe: While sales were comparable to previous year levels, both revenue and income decreased due to the effects of foreign exchange.
- In the previous year, allowance for doubtful accounts was recorded for trade-receivables in China in the Asia Trading segment.

Valuation of fish in the ponds is calculated every quarter based on IFRS, included in Marine Products Business's operating income.

Main Causes of Fluctuations

【Processing】

- North America
  - Frozen food for household use : While the consolidation of plants had some effects, sales of core products were not enough and income decreased.
  - Frozen foods for food services : In addition to the fall in the price of raw materials (shrimp), sales to major restaurant chains were strong.
- Europe
  - New production lines were reinforced while sales of mainly chilled marine products grew.
- Japan
  - Sales of frozen foods and fish paste products were strong due to mark-ups and cost reduction efforts.

【Chilled Processing】

- Sales of chilled boxed lunches (bento), salads and other products grew.
- Productivity improved due to a revision of production process and other factors.

(Marine Products Business)

➤ North America

Uphill battle expected due to sluggish market for Alaska Pollack fillets and decrease in production volume of roe.

➤ South America

Turnaround from the previous year expected due to the recovery of fish prices in the salmon/trout aquaculture business.

➤ Non-consolidated

Increase in income expected due to reinforced inventory management and promotion of deli-style products.

(Food Products Business)

➤ Oversea

Uphill battle expected in all areas due to factors including the rise in raw material prices.

➤ Non-consolidated

Growth expected through strengthening major categories and launch of foods with function claims.

(Fine Chemicals Business)

➤ Despite the lingering effects of the measures to promote the use of generic drugs, efforts will be made to develop the market by launching new products utilizing the foods function-indicating system.

Major causes of increase/decrease in operating income

◆ Operating income is expected to decrease by 1,400 million yen (-7.4%) year-on-year. Despite the uphill battle for Marine Products and Food Products in North America and continued challenging situation in South America, a turnaround from the previous year is expected. A challenging earnings situation overall is expected due to the trends in fish prices and foreign exchange.

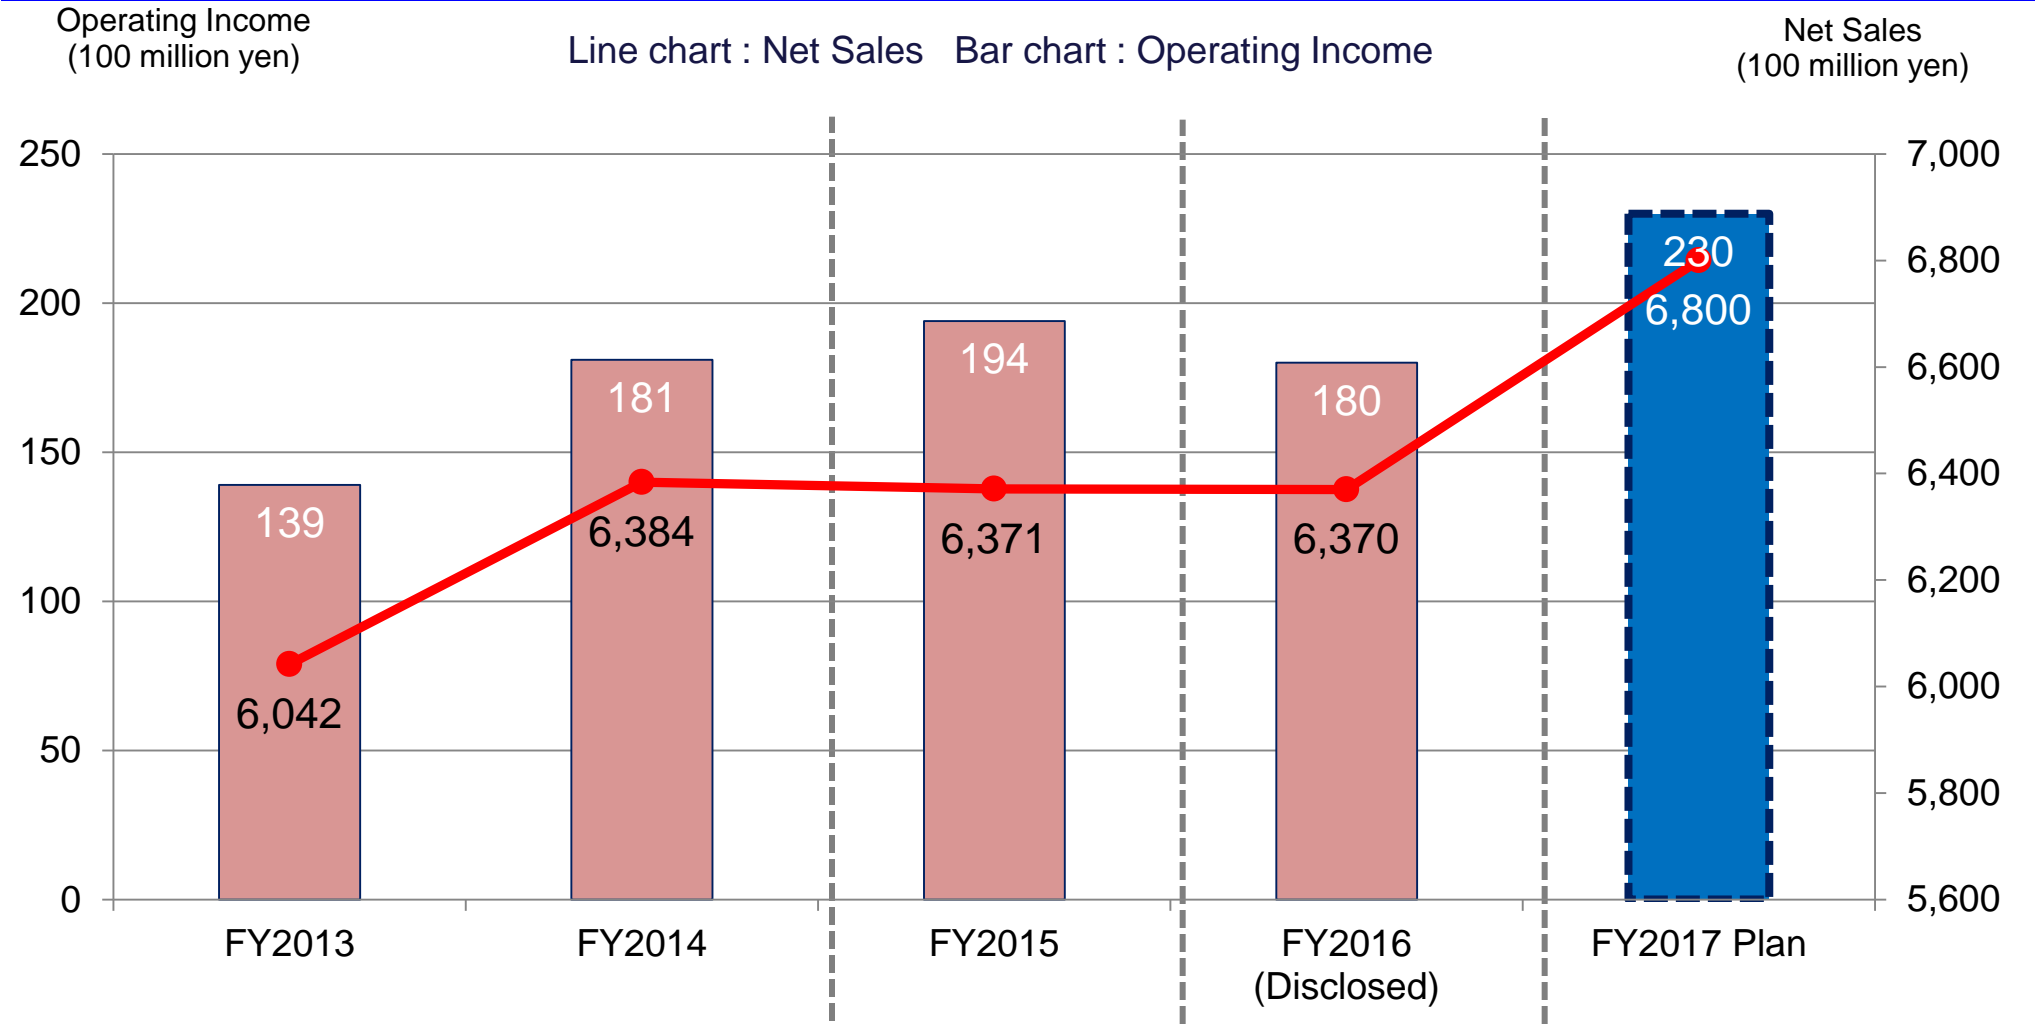

Main Causes of fluctuations

Result for FY2015	Overseas			Domestic	Overseas	Domestic	Plan for FY2016
	<North America>	<Asia>	<Europe>	<Logistics>	<South America>	<Non-consolidated>
	Food Products : Sluggish sales of core products and decline in sales due to mark-ups  Marine Products : Sluggish market for fillets and decrease in production volume of roe	Food Products : Rise in manufacturing costs including raw material prices and labor costs	Food Products : Surge in raw material prices and worsening exchange rate expected	Decrease in income due to depreciation and consumables required for the opening of Maishima Logistics Center	Marine Products : Prices of salmon/trout expected to recover from latter half of 2016 and focus on high value-added products	Marine products : Reinforced inventory management and promotion of deli-style products  Food Products : Reinforcement of major categories  Fine Chemicals : Uphill battle in pharmaceutical raw materials

◆ Launch with good condition in the first Fiscal Year but both net sales and operating income will keep the lower level.
