◆ While revenues increased year-on-year, income decreased slightly.

Overseas : North America performed strongly, while the decline in income widened in South America.

In Japan : Income from the Food Products Business increased and the Marine Products Business also performed steadily.

【Marine Products Business】 Revenue increased while income decreased.

In Japan : The sales prices of salmon/trout bottomed out and the sales prices of fish paste (surimi) and fish oil/meal remained steady.

Overseas : In spite of the increase in the sales volume of fish paste (surimi) in North America, profitability deteriorated considerably due to the surge in feed prices and the effects of fish diseases, as well as the plunge in sales prices and the increasing loss on valuation on fish in the aquaculture ponds in the salmon/trout aquaculture business in South America.

【Food Products Business】 Revenue and income increased.

In Japan : Despite the surge in the costs of raw ingredients such as fish paste (surimi) and the rising procurement costs of processed products due to the weak yen, sales of frozen prepared foods for household and for food services were strong due to price revisions and efforts to cut back costs.

The Chilled Foods business also maintained solid performance.

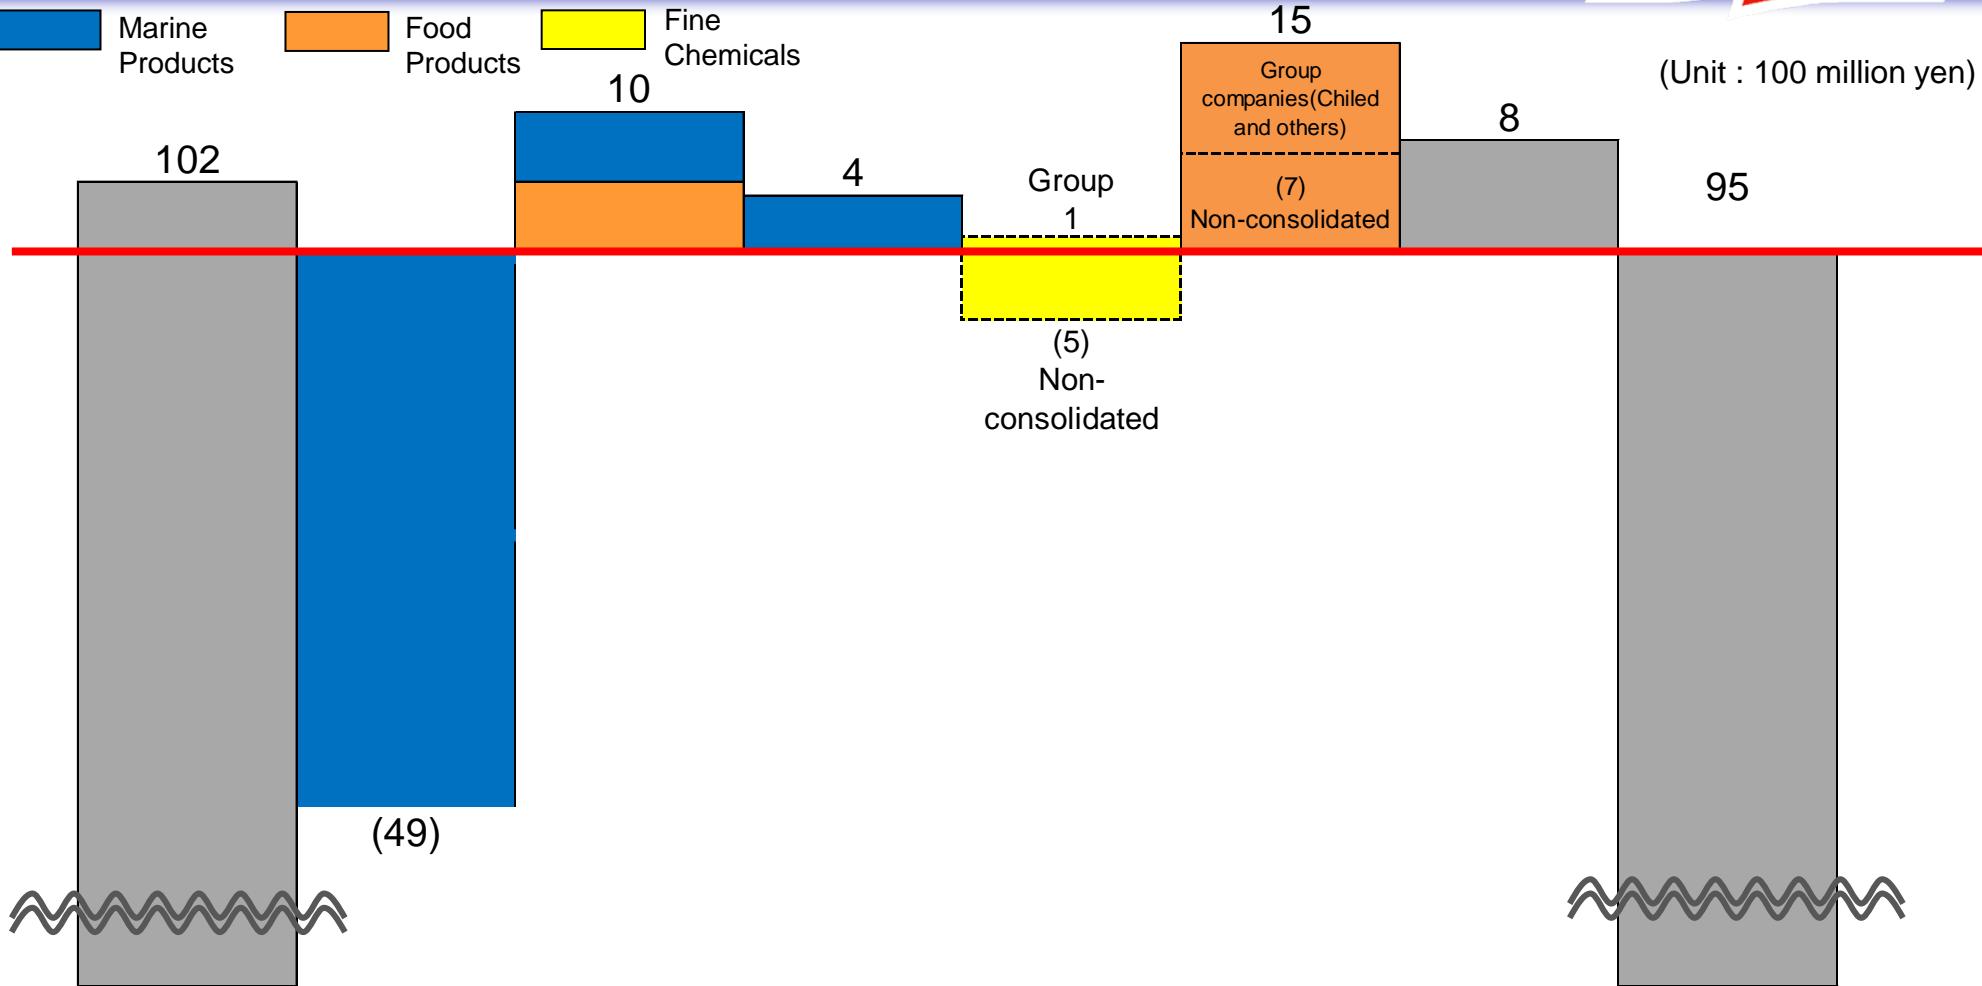

Overseas : Both North America and Europe increased revenue and income.

【Fine Chemicals Business】 Revenue and income decreased.

Nissui, on a non-consolidated basis, continued to suffer decreases in sales volume of pharmaceutical raw materials due to measures to promote the use of generic drugs.

The Group companies maintained strong sales mainly in clinical diagnostic medicine and industrial test agents.

Main Causes of Fluctuation

【Fishery】

- South America : Poor catch of hoki and Southern blue whiting, and decrease in sales volume

【Aquaculture】

- Domestic aquaculture business
 - Yellow tail : While sales of "Wakaburi" increased, production costs rose due to soaring feed prices.
 - Tuna : Sales prices remained strong despite the decrease in sales volume.
 - Horse mackerel : Performed steadily due to the decline in the price of horse mackerel as raw materials for purchased processed products.

- Salmon/trout aquaculture business
 - Sales prices plunged and the loss on valuation on fish in the aquaculture ponds increased, in addition to the surge in feed prices and the effects of fish disease.

【Processing and Trading】

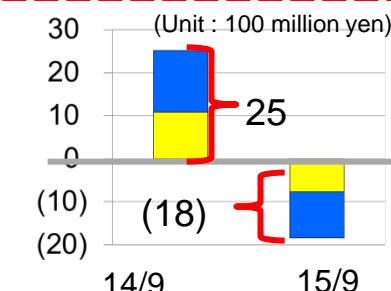

- Alaska Pollack business in the U.S.
 - Production of fish paste (surimi) increased and sales prices also rose.
- Europe : While sales increased, purchase prices rose due to the effects of the weakening euro.

【Non-consolidated】

- The sales prices of salmon/trout bottomed out, while the sales prices of fish paste (surimi) and fish meal remained high.

Main Causes of Fluctuation

【Processing】

- North America
 - Improved profitability due to efforts including the consolidation of plants
 - Sales to the major restaurant chains were strong, while the prices of raw materials, such as shrimp, declined.
- Europe
 - New production lines were added and the sales volume of high-priced chilled foods increased.
- Japan
 - In the business of processed food for food service using shrimp and white fish, performance was strong due to the decline in raw materials, such as shrimp.

【Chilled Products】

- Growth in sales of chilled boxed lunches and salads
- Improvements in productivity, resulting from a review of the production process

【Non-consolidated】

- Sales of frozen prepared foods for household and for food services were strong due to price revisions and efforts to cut back costs.

The second quarter consolidated results were generally favorable due to the exchange rates and domestic fish prices at the present time being steadier than expected at the beginning of the fiscal year. Nevertheless, due to the uncertainty surrounding the salmon/trout aquaculture business in South America, we have not revised our forecast.

【Assumed risks】

- (1) Marine Products business : Risk of fluctuation of salmon/trout market conditions, and its impact on the salmon/trout aquaculture business in Chile
- (2) Food Products business : Risk of drastic fluctuations in exchange rate and the continuing impact of the rising cost of fish paste (surimi)
- (3) Fine Chemicals business : Continued impact of the measures to promote the use of generic drugs and progress of recovery measures

Major Measures

<Marine Products business>

- By keeping a close watch on the salmon/trout and other market conditions, and practicing thorough management from procurement to inventory controls, we will strive to ensure profits.

<Food Products business>

- We will enhance profitability by improving production efficiency for products that use expensive raw materials.
- We will consider price revisions depending on circumstances, including the status of exchange rate and raw material prices.

<Fine Chemicals business>

- Pharmaceutical raw materials : We will reinforce marketing activities to familiarize the public with the effects of EPA and to secure our market share.
- We will expand sales of EPA/DHA raw materials to manufacturers of foods with functional claims.

<Foods with functional claims>

- We will roll out, "A Healthy EPA Life from the Sea", a brand of processed foods containing EPA/DHA, by utilizing the foods with functional claims system.
